

Directions

The ride will begin and end at Lake of the Woods County Park in Mahomet, Illinois. From I-74, take exit #174. Proceed north to first stop sign (2250N — Casey's is on the right-hand corner); turn left. Proceed to the next stop sign (Lake of the Woods Road); turn left and drive up the hill. The entrance to Lake of the Woods Park will be on your right. Signs in the park will direct you to the registration pavilion on the right, (changed from 2007).

Registration

Check-in for both pre-registered riders and day-of-ride registration opens at 7:30 a.m. and closes at 10 a.m. Those planning to ride the 65-mile route should plan to begin riding by 8:30 am.

The registration fee includes a map, well-marked routes, sag vehicle support (Thanks Worden-Martin Subaru!), bagel breakfast, food stops and an end-of-the-ride hot meal.

Food stops will close at 1 p.m.;

sag support and lunch will end at 2 p.m.

Come on. It'll be FUN!

Come join the Prairie Cycle Club at our annual metric century, C-U Across the Prairie, on August 15, 2009. The ride will visit communities near Mahomet on flat to slightly rolling terrain. Routes of about 17, 35 and 65 miles (100 km) are suited for riders of all abilities. Come enjoy country vistas, make new friends, renew old acquaintances, and have some fun. Marked routes, maps, sag support, a bagel breakfast and food stops are all provided as well as giveaways from our sponsors at the rest stops! And don't forget the post-ride hot lunch with vegetarian options,

Routes

The ride will take you out of Lake of the Woods on paved, low-traffic roads, over flat to slightly rolling terrain. The longer routes will traverse winding country roads with visits to nearby communities. Rides are designed to be relaxing and enjoyable for all skill levels.

Food

A bagel breakfast will be provided during registration. There will be one food stop on the 17- and 35-mile routes, and two food stops on the 65-mile route. And of course, hot lunch (including vegetarian) awaits you at the end of the ride!

Who rides?

Either as individuals or in groups, people of all ages, abilities and bike styles are invited. Riders under 16 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

PCC strongly recommends that every rider
wear a helmet.
